

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

PAPE DIEDHIOU,

Plaintiff(s),

v.

THE REPUBLIC OF SENEGAL, et al.,

Defendant(s).

20-CV-5685 (DEH)

NOTICE OF REASSIGNMENT

DALE E. HO, United States District Judge:

This case has been reassigned to the undersigned. All counsel must familiarize themselves with the Court's Individual Practices, which are available at <https://nysd.uscourts.gov/hon-dale-e-ho>. Unless and until the Court orders otherwise, all prior orders, dates, and deadlines shall remain in effect notwithstanding the case's reassignment.

Additionally, by November 3, 2023, the parties are hereby ORDERED to file on ECF a joint letter, described below, updating the Court on the status of the case. Parties shall attach the Civil Case Management Plan and Scheduling Order, also available at <https://www.nysd.uscourts.gov/hon-dale-e-ho>, to the joint letter. The joint letter shall provide the following information, to the extent it is relevant, in separate paragraphs:

1. Names of counsel and current contact information, if different from the information currently reflected on the docket;
2. A brief statement of the nature of the case and/or the principal defenses thereto;
3. A brief explanation of why jurisdiction and venue lie in this Court. In any action in which subject matter jurisdiction is founded on diversity of citizenship pursuant to Title 28, United States Code, Section 1332, the letter must explain the basis for the parties' belief that diversity of citizenship exists. Where any party is a corporation, the letter shall state both the place of incorporation and the principal place of business. In cases where any party is a partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, or trust, the letter shall state the citizenship of each of the entity's members, shareholders, partners, and/or trustees;

4. A statement of all existing deadlines, due dates, and/or cut-off dates;
5. A statement of any previously-scheduled conference dates with the Court that have not yet occurred and the matters that were to be discussed;
6. A brief description of any outstanding motions, including the date of the motion and the nature of the relief sought;
7. A statement and description of any pending appeals;
8. A detailed statement of all discovery undertaken to date, including how many depositions each party has taken and what, if any, discovery remains that is essential for the parties to engage in meaningful settlement negotiations;
9. A brief description of the status of prior settlement discussions, without disclosing exact offers and demands;
10. A statement of whether the parties have discussed the use of alternate dispute resolution mechanisms and indicating whether the parties believe that (a) a settlement conference before a Magistrate Judge; (b) participation in the District's Mediation Program; and/or (c) retention of a privately retained mediator would be appropriate and, if so, when in the case (e.g., within the next 60 days, after the deposition of plaintiff is completed, after the close of fact discovery, etc.) the use of such a mechanism would be appropriate;
11. An estimate of the length of trial;

12. A statement as to whether the parties have reached any agreement to consent to amendments to the pleadings, as discussed at the conference held on October 17, 2023; and
13. Any other information that the parties believe may assist the Court in advancing the case to settlement or trial, including, but not limited to, a description of any dispositive or novel issue raised by the case.

If this case has been settled or otherwise terminated, counsel are not required to submit such letter or to appear, provided that a stipulation of discontinuance, voluntary dismissal, or other proof of termination is filed on the docket prior to the joint letter submission deadline, using the appropriate ECF Filing Event. See SDNY ECF Rules & Instructions §§ 13.17-13.19, available at http://nysd.uscourts.gov/ecf\_filing.php. Requests for extensions or adjournment may be made only by letter-motion filed on ECF, and must be received at least two business days before the deadline or scheduled appearance, absent compelling circumstances. The written submission must state (1) the original date(s) set for the appearance or deadline(s) and the new date(s) requested; (2) the reason(s) for the request; (3) the number of previous requests for adjournment or extension; (4) whether these previous requests were granted or denied; and (5) whether opposing counsel consents, and, if not, the reasons given by opposing counsel for refusing to consent.

The briefing schedule for Plaintiff's contemplated motion to amend the Complaint and Defendant Republic of Senegal's contemplated motion to file a third-party complaint is ADJOURNED, pending filing of the status letter described above. If all parties agree to either Plaintiff's or Senegal's proposed amendments or both, they shall state as much in the status letter. If the parties are unable to agree, they shall brief the contemplated motions as follows:

- By November 10, 2023, any party seeking to amend or file a third-party complaint shall file a letter motion, not to exceed five pages, in support of the proposed amendment or third-party complaint. Any such letter shall attach two exhibits: a clean copy of the proposed pleading and a redline showing changes from the operative pleading, as appropriate.
- By November 17, 2023, any party opposing amendment shall file a letter, not to exceed five pages, in response.

No reply briefing shall be submitted in connection with any proposed amendment.

The conference scheduled for February 16, 2024, following the close of discovery is ADJOURNED to February 28, 2024, at 11:00 A.M. EST. The conference will be held via Microsoft Teams. The parties shall join the conference by dialing (646) 453 – 4442, and entering the conference ID: 515 247 102, followed by the pound sign (#).

SO ORDERED.
